English short description	The VR Cognitive Assessment and Rehab Training System (hereinafter referred to as "this System") is an immersive digital therapy platform integrating cognitive assessment, training, and data management. By leveraging Virtual Reality (VR) technology and high-precision eye-tracking technology, the System collects eye movement data that reflects an individual's cognitive abilities such as attention, memory, and reaction speed. Through the collection and analysis of this eye movement data, it provides more accurate and objective assessment results for patients with cognitive impairments.

Statement

Based on the registration information above, the medical device identified in this certificate has been notified to the competent authority in Germany under registration number DE/CA20/00215136.
